

Towards a Global Approach to Automotive Fuel Economy

Federation Internationale de L'automobile, 8 Place de la Concorde, 75008 Paris

May 15th-16th 2008

PROGRAMME

DAY ONE – THE GLOBAL DIMENSION

9.30am Coffee – Salle St Louis – 5th floor

10.00 – 11.00 Session 1 - Introduction

Chair: David Ward (Director General – FIA Foundation)

Speakers:

- Sylvie Lemmet (Director – UNEP)
- Jack Short (Secretary General - ITF)
- Nobuo Tanaka (Executive Director – IEA)

11.00 – 12.30 Session 2 - The Global Trends

Chair: Jack Jacometti (Vice President Future Fuels – Shell)

Speakers:

- Forecasts for motor vehicle and oil demand to 2030 and 2050 - Pierpaolo Cazzola (Transport Energy Specialist - IEA)
- Policy challenges in climate change, air quality, energy security - David Greene (Corporate Fellow – National Transportation Research Centre)
- A car producer viewpoint - Willy Tomboy (Director, Environmental Affairs Group, Toyota Europe)

12.30 – 14.00 LUNCH – Salle St Louis

14.00 – 16.00

Session 3 - Global Case Studies – Sharing Experience in the Developed and Emerging Economies

Chair: David Ward (Director General - FIA Foundation)

Speakers:

Developed Economies

US	Drew Kodjak (Executive Director - ICCT)
Japan	Mr. Michinori Hachiya (General Manager, Environment and Engineering, Nissan)
EU	Guenter Hoermandinger (Policy Officer, Vehicle Emissions, DG Env)

Emerging Economies

China	Mike Walsh (Carlines)
India	Atanu Ganguli (Deputy Director – SIAM)/P K Banerjee, (Assistant General Manager, Tata Motors)
Latin America	Gianni Lopez (Director, Centro Mario Molina, Chile) Henry Joseph Jr (Director, Volkswagen Brazil)

16.00 -17.30

Session 4 - The Potential of Fuel and Vehicle Technologies

Chair: Rob de Jong (Head, Urban Environment Unit, UNEP)

Speakers:

- The scope for improvement in current fuel and vehicle technologies K.G. Duleep (Managing Director, EEA-ICF)
- The technology pathway to clean and efficient road transport - Axel Friedrich
- The potential of technology transfer - Kelly Sims Gallagher (Director, Energy Technology Innovation Policy, Kennedy School)

19.30

Drinks and Dinner – Salon de la Concorde, ACF, 6 Place de la Concorde ,
Speaker – Jack Jacometti (Vice President, Future Fuels Shell)

DAY TWO – May 16th - PROMOTING FUEL ECONOMY

9.00 Coffee – Salle St Louis

09.30-11.00 Session 5 - Fuel Economy Standards

Chair: Steven Plotkin (Argonne National Lab)

Speakers:

- Comparison of current fuel economy standards and agreements -Takao Onada (Policy Analyst, IEA)
- Issues in global fuel economy standards - Mike Walsh (Carlines)
- A producer perspective – Rolf Stromberger – (ACEA)

11.00 – 12.30 Session 6 - The Role of Market Mechanisms

Chair: Stephen Perkins (Head, Joint Transport Research Centre, OECD/ITF)

Speakers:

- Cost effectiveness and the role of the market - John Llewellyn (Senior Economic Policy Advisor, Lehman Brothers)
- The role of consumer information - Reinhard Kolke (Director, Test and Technical Affairs, ADAC)
- Recent Evidence – Luc Bastard (Senior Manager, Environmental Regulations, Renault)

12.30-14.00 LUNCH – Salle St Louis

14.00-16.00 Session 7 - Strategy for a Global Policy Framework for Automotive Fuel Economy

Chair: Lew Fulton (Senior Transport Energy Specialist, IEA)