

INTERNATIONAL TOURISM AND ROAD SAFETY SEMINAR
Paris, 24 September 2008

FIA
8 place de la Concorde
75008 Paris

Programme

Chaired by Susan Pikrallidas
FIA Secretary General for Automobile Mobility and Tourism

09.30-10.00 Registration and welcome coffee

10:00-11:15 Session 1 – Introduction

Welcome and introduction

Werner Kraus, FIA Region 1 President

Global Road Safety Overview

David Ward, Director General, FIA Foundation

Globalisation of Tourism

Dirk Glaesser, Chief, Risk and Crisis Management, UN World Tourism Organization (UNWTO)

Personal Testimony

Rochelle Sobel, President, Association for Safe International Road Travel (ASIRT)

11:15 Coffee

11:30-13:00 Session 2 – International Tourism and Road Safety Study

Presentation of the International Tourism and Road Safety Study

John White, Consultant, Transport Strategy

Initial Response from the World Tourism Organization (WTO)

Dirk Glaesser, Chief, Risk and Crisis Management

Initial Response from the FIA Tourism Commission

Greg Hunting, Director Public Policy and Services, FIA

Insights from US Department of State

Catherine Barry, Consul-General (France), US State Department

13:00 Lunch

13:45-17:00 Session 3 – Stakeholder contributions

13:45 Part A: Tourist and Business Travel

Motoring Club Contributions

Caroline Ofoegbu, Deputy Director General, FIA European Bureau

Occupational Health & Safety

Ken Shaw, Shaw Safety Associates (Former Director, Road Safety, BP PLC)

Fleet Management

Rob McConnell, Coordinator, Fleet Forum

Global Road Safety Partnership perspective

Andrew Pearce, CEO, GRSP

International Road Assessment Programme

John Dawson, Chairman, iRAP

15:45 Part B: International Organisations and Government Authorities

International Institutions

Jasminka Goldoni Laestadius, Occupational Medicine Specialist, Health Services Department, World Bank

Government Authorities

Iain Cameron, Executive Director, Western Australia Office of Road Safety

UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office

Jess Prasad, Head, Publicity Team, Consular Communications, FCO
Greg Thorpe, Client Services Director, 23red

17:00 Session 4 – Conclusions and Action Arising

Discussion led by Susan Pikrallidas, FIA Secretary General for Automobile Mobility and Tourism

17:30 Closure of Seminar